

2170 - FOUR MONTHS EXTENDED MEDICAID BECAUSE OF CHILD SUPPORT INCOME

POLICY STATEMENT

Four Months Extended Medicaid Because of Child Support (4MCS) provides 4 months of Medicaid coverage for a LIM AU which has become ineligible because of the receipt of child support.

BASIC
CONSIDERATIONS

4MCS is available to an AU that becomes ineligible for LIM because of an increase in child support or a concurrent increase of child support and other income.

An AU with earned income that becomes ineligible for LIM because of concurrent increase child support and earned income has the option of receiving TMA or 4MCS. It is, however to the AU's advantage to receive TMA instead of 4MCS if earned income exists because:

- TMA eligibility period is up to 12 months as opposed to the month 4MCS eligibility period
- if the AU elects to receive 4MCS and subsequently become ineligible, Medicaid cannot be reinstated under TMA.

The AU must have correctly received LIM in three of the six months preceding the first month of LIM ineligibility. Refer to Section 2162, LIM for criteria for correctly receiving LIM.

LIM ineligibility may be caused by an increase in child support and a concurrent change. If the concurrent change alone caused LIM ineligibility, the AU is ineligible for 4MCS.

Increased child support is defined as any of the following:

- the initial receipt of child support
- an increase in the amount of child support received
- the receipt of an additional child support payment.

If the AU receives a back payment of child support, the lump sum is budgeted as income in the month of receipt unless the accumulation is because of an administrative procedure or error.

The child support may be received directly from the absent parent (AP), through CSE or another source such as Clerk of the Court.

If LIM ineligibility results when adding a child with child support to a LIM AU, 4MCS can be approved for the entire AU.

BASIC

The AU must report the increase in child support within 10 days of receiving the income. If the AU fails to report the change within 10 days of receipt of the increase, the eligibility worker (EW) must determine when the change should have been effective based on the 10 day reporting requirement.

The EW must make the change as soon as possible, but no later than 10 days after the report. If LIM ineligibility results from the increase in child support income, 4MCS eligibility begins the first

PROCEDURES

- Follow the steps below to establish Medicaid eligibility for the AU under 4MCS.
- Step 1 Determine the amount of child support, the date of first receipt and the date reported by the AU.
- Step 2 Complete a budget indicating LIM ineligibility because of child support income or child support income in combination with other income, but not the other income alone.
- Step 3 Establish that the AU correctly received LIM in three of the six months preceding the first month of ineligibility for LIM.
- Step 4 Terminate LIM and approve 4MCS for the AU effective the month following the expiration of timely notice.
- Step 5 Notify the A/R of the change, specifying the four months of Medicaid eligibility under 4MCS and the individuals covered.
- Step 6 At the end of the four month eligibility period, complete a CMD and notify the AU.
