

2925 – THE FOOD STAMP PROGRAM - (DHR/DFCS)

POLICY STATEMENT	The purpose of the Food Stamp Program is to promote the well being of the state's population by raising the level of nutrition among low-income assistance units. The Food Stamp Program provides monthly benefits through Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) to low-income families to help pay for the cost of food.
CONTROLLING LEGISLATION	The Food Stamp Program is authorized by the Food Stamp Act of 1977. The eligibility provisions of the Act are further developed in Title 7, Code of Federal Regulations, parts 210 through 299. The Food Stamp Program is administered by the Food and Nutrition Service under the United States Department of Agriculture.
HISTORY	The legal basis for the Food Stamp Program is the Food Stamp Act of 1977, the Omnibus Reconciliation Act of 1981, and the Food Security Act of 1964. Benefits are funded 100 percent by the federal government, and administrative costs are shared by the state and federal governments on a 50-50 basis.
BASIC CONSIDERATIONS	Food Stamp Program policy and procedures for eligibility in Georgia is developed by the Food and Nutrition Program Unit under the DHR/DFCS Office of Family Independence (OFI). Other programs offered by the Food and Nutrition Program Unit includes The Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP) and the Food and Nutrition Services Education (FNSE) program. Applications for Food Stamps are accepted at the local DFCS office and Social Security Administration. Applications taken at the Social Security Administration are forwarded to DFCS for processing.
