

2960 – TEMPORARY ASSISTANCE FOR NEEDY FAMILIES (TANF)

POLICY STATEMENT	The Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act (PRWORA) of 1996 eliminated the open-ended entitlement of Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC). The PRWORA created a block grant for states to provide time-limited cash assistance for needy families, with work requirements for most recipients. The law also made far-reaching changes to childcare, the Child Support Enforcement Program and benefits for legal immigrants.
BASIC CONSIDERATIONS	The PRWORA eliminated the AFDC program, JOBS, and Emergency Assistance (EA), and created the Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF) Block Grant. The purposes of TANF are to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• provide assistance to needy families so that children can be cared for in their homes or in the homes of relatives• end the dependency of needy parents on government benefits by promoting job preparation, work, and marriage• prevent and reduce the incidence of out-of-wedlock pregnancies and establish annual numerical goals for preventing and reducing the incidence of these pregnancies• encourage the formation and maintenance of two-parent families. In operating the TANF program, Georgia's primary goal is to provide necessary assistance on a temporary basis to needy families with children, and to provide parents with job preparation, work opportunities, support services, and enforcement of child support obligations to children living in these families. In so doing, Georgia will enable needy families to become self-sufficient and leave the TANF program as soon as possible.

CONSIDERATIONS

Promoting the well being of the children of Georgia is the mission of the Department of Human Services, Division of Family and Children Services. In order to fulfill its mission, the Department assists families in their efforts to acquire the necessary means to achieve economic self-sufficiency. Assistance is provided in the following manner:

- work activities that include job search, job training, and assistance with job placement,
- support services such as child care, transportation, and other necessary expenditures that assist families in obtaining employment and remaining employed, thus eliminating the need for cash assistance,
- cash assistance that is provided either by check or electronic benefit transfer,
- support services intended to support and maintain two-parent families, and
- support services intended to prevent teen and out-of-wedlock pregnancies.

PROCEDURES

Applications for TANF are accepted at the local DFCS office.
